

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

VOL. XIII

LEXINGTON, KY., SEPTEMBER 29, 1922

No. 2

WILDCATS WILL MEET MARSHALL HERE FOR FIRST GAME OF SEASON

Blue and White Wearers Are Expected to Repeat Last Year's Victory

MANY NEW MEN ON SQUAD

Captain Pribble Will Lead His Men Against the Heavy West Virginians

The University of Kentucky will inaugurate its 1922 football season tomorrow afternoon when the Wildcats appear on Stoll Field for their game with Marshall College. The Blue and White defeated the West Virginians last year 28 to 0 and hopes are high for another victory. Marshall, however, has an excellent team and a very interesting battle seems to be on the menu. The Big Green team won its first game of the season last Saturday 71 to 6.

Monday witnessed the first scrimmage of the year for the Cats, with two squads engaging in a snappy workout. The team has been slowly rounding into form this week and the chances for the year have brightened considerably. The squad has suffered practically no loss on account of injuries, with the exception of Brewer, who has an injured shoulder, and all the men are in excellent condition for the game.

In the opening game, as in all opening games, there will probably be many new faces in the lineup, but a majority of last year's stars will comprise the Wildcat team on the field at the opening whistle. Captain Pribble, Fuller, Sander, and either Bayless or Ferguson will constitute the backfield, with either Pribble or Bayless calling the signals. Fest will start the fray at center, and will be flanked at guard by Brown and Ramsey. Cammack and Russell, veterans of (Continued on Page 5)

REHEARSALS TO START FOR "THE 13TH CHAIR."

Three Vacancies in the Cast to Be Supplied Before Presentation

Rehearsals for the production of "The Thirteenth Chair," the 1922 play presented by the Strollers last season, will begin Monday night in Dicker Hall. The Strollers intend to give the play in two weeks for the benefit of the new students in the University who did not have the privilege of seeing the production last spring. After intensive rehearsals next week the management will arrange for the presentation of the play in Lexington and it is probable that plans will be made for trips to surrounding Kentucky towns.

The cast of "The Thirteenth Chair" need be replaced only with three new members. The vacancies caused by the graduation of the three members of the cast last year will necessitate the parts of Mr. Trent, Edward Wales and Pollock, the butler, to be assigned again.

The repeated production will not interfere with the 1923 production of the Strollers, nor will it interfere with tryouts for eligibility into the organization which will begin early in October.

All Freshmen and new students in the University are urged to apply for membership into the organization.

$5.00 REWARD

The Su-Ky Circle offers a prize of $5.00 to the student writing the best song to be set to music, written by Professor Lampert. This song is also to be used as a cheer song at the games. For information see Prof. Carl Lampert.

EXTENSION COURSES ARE OFFERED BY U. K.

Classes Established in Mountains, Lexington and Neighboring Towns

Notwithstanding the fact that all of the departments are over-crowded and the teaching force already burdened with extra work, the University is enlarging its scope of influence by establishing classes carrying regular college credit, in the mountains. Professor Wellington Patrick, director of extension, has announced that classes will be established in Ashland and Pineville soon.

This work is already being carried on in Paris, Georgetown and Lexington and Professor Patrick was in Winchester Saturday for the purpose of negotiating for the establishment of classes in that city. It is expected that extension sections in other towns will be announced soon.

This is the fourth year that the University has offered extension courses. Dr. J. J. Tigert, now United States Commissioner of Education, first organized and taught a course in the psychology of advertising, in this manner in Danville and Lexington.

The work is conducted in the same manner as regular college classes except that they will meet only once a week. Classes for Lexington citizens will be taught on the campus on Saturdays. Miss Margaret Horsefield, of the Department of Romance Languages, will teach a class in second semester Spanish each Saturday afternoon. Dr. Morris Scherago will teach a class in bacteriology Saturday morning and Dr. J. L. Douglass will teach a class in education Saturday afternoon. Courses may be offered in drawing, painting and short story writing also.

Among the classes offered at Paris are: English, by Professor E. F. Farquhar; hygiene, by Dr. P. K. Holmes; and history, by Dr. Edward Tuthill. Dr. J. T. C. Noe will offer a class in education at Georgetown.

NOTICE

Applications for the Rhodes Scholarship must be turned in at President McVey's office before October 10. There will be four applicants chosen, notwithstanding initial number of applicants. These four will compete with the applicants from other schools in the state. Rhodes scholars are appointed without examination on the basis of their record in school and college. A candidate to be eligible must be a male citizen of the United States and unmarried, between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five and must have completed at least his sophomore year in college.

LOST—A vest pocket Kodak, last Monday, on campus. Return to Billy Williams, or leave at Kernel Office.

"TNT"

Virgil Johnson, a Sophomore in the College of Engineering, from Graysville, Tennessee, in the foothills of the Cumberland mountains, brought to the University this fall a wildcat which he presented to the Su-Ky Circle. The cat is to be used as a mascot at all the football games and will be an inspiration at "pep" meetings and rallies. On Tuesday the animal, which is "really wild," was chloroformed and put into harness with a chain and pole. With the symbol of the spirit of the football team actually present, the squad will surely meet with even greater success than formerly.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT OF UNIVERSITY HONORED BY GENERAL READ

Recommendation Made for Place Among Few Distinguished Universities

630 FRESHMEN DRILL

New Uniforms to Be Furnished The Advanced Course Men This Year.

The Commanding General of the Corps Area has written to the Military Department of the University stating that the unit here will be placed among the few honored as distinguished universities. This means that a graduate of the Military Department upon the recommendation of Colonel Freeman will receive a commission as second lieutenant in the regular army, if he so desires, without further examination.

This is a high honor to the University as there are but few universities upon this roll of honor and those that are are such as Cornell, Harvard, Yale and other large northern universities.

The Kernel feels that the University owes this honor to the staff of the Military Science and Tactics Department and that with the co-operation of the students we will have in due time the most efficient and best drilled unit in the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

650 Freshmen Drill

The freshman class in Military Science and Tactics has increased a hundred fold over that of last year. There are 650 freshmen enrolled in the Military Department. It is the most promising Sophomore class we have ever had, according to Captain Marsh. There are as many men in the advanced corps as there were last year and more advanced men than there are commissions to be given.

New Uniforms for Advanced Men

A distinctive uniform is being furnished the advanced course men this year. It is tailor-made and the coat

$5.00 REWARD

F. A. C. Thompson, a member of Su-Ky Circle, offers through the Circle, a prize of $5.00 to the student in the University who submits the best and peppiest yell to be used at all games and at pep meetings. Turn in to the Kernel office.

STUDENT BODY HEADS GIVE CHAPEL PROGRAM

Purpose and Plans of Various Organizations Are Explained to Freshmen

Opening exercises for the freshman class of the University of Kentucky, were held Tuesday, September 26, in the chapel. President McVey opened the meeting with scripture reading from the one hundred and nineteenth Psalm, after which the students repeated the Lord's prayer.

Representatives of several active organizations on the campus explained the purposes and work of their respective organizations. Mary Royster, president of the Woman's Self Government Association, told of the success and rapid progress of that organization during the five years of its existence at the University of Kentucky. The purpose of the W. S. G. A. is to promote the best living conditions and teach the principles of self-government.

Otis Jones, president of the Men's Student Council, said that this organization was introduced into the University of Kentucky in the year 1921 by M. K. Elben, at that time president of the senior class, who had just returned from a meeting of this body held at the University of Missouri. This association is governed by a council consisting of four members from the senior class, three from the junior class, two from the sophomore class and the president of the freshman class. It endeavors to control all matters of discipline and social affairs.

The two religious organizations, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A., were represented by their respective presidents, Elizabeth Hume and Fleenor Heath. These organizations are the only ones on the campus dealing with the religious side of life and have for their purpose the development of high ideals. Regular meetings of the Y. W. C. A. are held every Sunday evening in the recreation room at Patterson Hall at 6:30.

Mabel Ruth Coates, who represented the Philosophical Literary Society, asked that young women try for membership into this society. A paper written on any one of a number of subjects to be posted later entitles the writer to membership. Meetings are held every two weeks at Patterson Hall.

Hugh Peele, who won the Rhodes scholarship at U. K. last year, spoke for the Patterson Literary Society, emphasizing the advantages of becoming a member. The social side of this organization has been lost in its endeavor to promote oratory of the highest order. Mr. Peele left Thursday night to sail for England.

Irene McNamara, editor of the Kentucky Kernel, named several papers published on the campus, the Kentuckian, published yearly by the senior class, the University Bulletin published quarterly by the journalism department, the Law School Journal, published weekly by the College of Law, and the High School Quarterly, edited by the education department.

AGRICULTURE COLLEGE DISPLAY AT STATE FAIR CAUSES MUCH INTEREST

Exhibits Show Marked Improvement Over Those Presented Last Year

MODEL KITCHEN SHOWN

Agriculture Engineers Show Model Farm With Improved Drainage

The College of Agriculture and Experiment Station had very creditable displays at the State Fair during the week September 11-16, of this year and each showed many improvements over last year.

Dean Cooper and his assistants are well pleased over the showing made by the various departments in presenting their ideas to the visitors at the fair.

Very interesting was the way in which was shown how marketing of products can be improved throughout Kentucky, by the erection of a series of elevations representing the different steps in the process of handling farm products, and with the information that better marketing could be brought about by eliminating any of the steps but by improving them. Each step was illustrated.

A model kitchen attracted great attention and there was one thing that was different from any other kitchen, anyone had ever seen, which caused so many to stop and think. That was information upon a poster, to the effect, that, by spending twenty cents for four rollers and placing them under a small kitchen table, 165 miles of walking a year could be saved.

Poultry Exhibit

The poultry department had an incubator, brooder and lighted show case, telling how to care for flocks and how to improve the industry. In the machine and brooder were real live chicks which came off a few at (Continued on Page 5)

UNIVERSITY TAXED TO CARE FOR 1600 STUDENTS

Several Foreign Countries Represented by Students Here

With the enrollment of 1,600 students up to noon Wednesday, the University is confronted with the problem of crowded class rooms and the largest registration in several years, according to Registrar Gillis.

All departments will be crowded and the physical equipment in the laboratory sections will be overtaxed this year. To care for the crowded conditions the lecture method will be used in the class rooms.

Additional enrollment will probably necessitate the forming of new sections and will place further strain on the teaching force.

About 600 students have already enrolled in the military department and others are expected to take this work.

The number of foreign students is more than usual and includes South America, Bulgaria, Poland, China and Japan.

Four of these students are registered in the College of Engineering. They are M. Vienna, D. M. and G. Stamatoff, and S. J. Szal. Those enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences are: Hiam Yuan Tsai, Ben Jarn and A. Vienna.

(Continued on Page 4)

(Continued on Page 3)

Alumni Notes

Editor---Alumni Secretary

CALENDAR

Lexington, October 14 —
(Second Saturday — Regular)
Luncheon, 12:30. Lafayette
Hotel.

STATUE OF DR. PATTERSON

In front of the capitol building at Washington City, there stands a bronze memorial to Chief Justice Marshall, the great and peerless expounder of the Constitution of the United States. At Cambridge, upon the campus of the great university which bears his name, is to be found a similar memorial to John Harvard. The mention of these is intended only to indicate the purpose in our minds in like manner to honor the founder of the University of Kentucky. What we contemplate is a statue of him as we have seen him sitting in his office, lecture room, or on the chapel platform. Thus to honor him will be the greatest possible honor to the University, the Commonwealth and ourselves.

President McVey and the Executive Committee of the University have manifested their interest in the movement, and with the aid of the University landscape architect will designate an appropriate site on the campus for the erection of the statue. C. H. Niehaus, the artist who made the statue of Governor Goebel, has been selected to make the statue of Dr. Patterson. The statue will be of bronze. The artist will place the statue upon a proper granite pedestal, and all will be of appropriate artistic proportions. The entire cost will be $10,000.

In case the fund is oversubscribed the plan is to turn the excess into the portrait fund of the Alumni Association.

After obtaining a few subscriptions aggregating a little less than $2,000, the effort was temporarily abandoned because of the campaign which was initiated to raise $300,000 for a memorial building. The time is now opportune to raise the balance of the fund.

The matter was discussed by a small group of alumni and former students in Denver a few days ago and additional subscriptions obtained which with those already obtained from Denver alumni aggregate $750. Through the Kernel I would like to appeal to all loyal alumni to send in a subscription to Herbert Graham, treasurer of the Alumni Association, payable when the treasurer has obtained subscriptions of not less than $10,000.

It is desired to have some member of each alumni club take the matter up with their local organization with the view of procuring immediately subscriptions to this most laudable purpose. An appeal is also made to class secretaries to canvass the members of their own classes and to procure and send to Mr. Graham these subscriptions.

CHAS. R. BROCK, '90.

300 Wight Bldg., Denver Col.

NEW YORK AND KENTUCKY ALUMNI

By Miss Marguerite McLaughlin

NEW YORK, Sept 12.—Now that the glare of the white lights no longer confuse me on Broadway I am going to write you of my summer, thus far, in New York. Columbia, crowded to the guards in class rooms, libraries and cafeterias, took up the greater part of the first six weeks. (I always make that remark about Columbia "mob" as a sort of comfort when I think of the congestion at U. K.) Miss Adelaide Crane and I represented the faculty at the Summer Session until Miss Margaret Horsefield arrived for the last few weeks and Mrs. Charles J. Smith made a short visit to Miss Crane about the middle of August. Miss Ann Sinrall was matriculated later for further advanced work and remained throughout the session.

Socially I was fortunate enough to meet many of the old grads. Robert M. Allen, the man who made Kentucky's pure food law, is directing chemist for Ward Baking Company and is in charge of some interesting work in the laboratory for his company. Jimmy Mastin and Minton Gregor are with Mr. Allen. Derrill Hart, advertising man with Doubleday, Page & Co., is having an extremely interesting time. He usually spends his week-ends with his sister, Mrs. Robert Wyle, at Hempstead, L. I. Mrs. Stanfield Arnold, formerly Miss Nettie Rodes, has moved east and joined the colony of Kentuckians at Orange, N. J. Mrs. Richard Hill, who as a student was Miss Katherine Mitchell, of Bowling Green, came to the States from Cuba and has been at Allenhurst, N. J., this summer. She came over to New York for a short stay and with Johnnie Burks, Dan Morse, Milton Revell, Claribel Kay, Norman Witt, Dave Thornton and me talked over old Stroller days and discussed the future of the organization. Dave and Norman, you know, are with the Charles H. Hartmann Company in Brooklyn, and Johnnie Burks was there too for the summer. Gilbert and Frances Smith, who spend their summers in New York, came down to us for a little while and saw some good theatricals. Theatre-going was the favorite sport with the whole crowd and the boys felt that we had not lived up to our traditions when we left the roost and the soft drink parlors without giving the yells.

Frances Marsh, who now lives in Wilmington, Delaware, came to New York recently and was good enough to look me up. As I was enjoying a unique experience in the way of newspaper work I asked her to go the rounds with me the following day. We went to the slum, via the sub or L, but finally landed back in the office where Frances signed up for work and joined the publicity forces of the Federation for Jewish Philanthropies. Far be it from me to say what "mine" are doing in New York but you know Miss Josephine Farrell has just refused a most flattering offer from Vogue and Miss Anne Molloy dictates beauty hints for the World and you know she can tell 'em. Her fashion pages are the very envy of all and are published in all the really smart papers. Of course you know that Miss Farrell, Miss Molloy, Mr. Hart and Miss Marsh were journalists, some specials, some majors and some just students. Claribel Kay is working in New York with the Mutual Life Insurance Company. I did not have an opportunity to see Mr. J. I. Lyle, J. Esten Bowling, Ray Duncan and others, but I met Paul and Elizabeth Anderson on the Avenue and Mrs. Lester Brown and Mildred Graham were with Zerelda Noland and Katherine McMeekin and Edna Smith, who were students at Columbia.

After I finished my work at Columbia I took up the publicity with the Jewish Federation and had stories in every New York paper during the five weeks that I wrote and left a great number of feature stories to be published later. This is the work Frances Marsh will take up when I leave.

Morris Pendleton, who has been with the Armstrong Cork and Insulation Company since he was graduated in 1919, has been placed in charge of the firm's office at Schenectady, and will go there about November 1. This is not the only interesting thing that is going to happen for Morris about the first of the Chrysanthemum month.

There may be another letter from me before I return to Kentucky, but if there isn't I'll give you a second thought on the summer when I see you and despite a highly successful well worked vacation I will be mighty glad to get back to the campus and I think every alum I have met in New York would be glad to be with me.

"It is a great pleasure to be reminded of what is happening at the University—changed so much for the better during twenty years—and I am sure that your live organization is doing very much toward the improvements that are taking place. With best wishes, now and always, for all that advances "State"—Dr. Drew Lutten '01, 721 University Club Building, St. Louis, Mo.

o-o-o

Major H. H. Rice, president of the class of 1904, has been appointed attorney in the Department of Justice at Washington, and is Special Assistant in the prosecution of important Government cases in the District of Columbia.

o-o-o

"Professor T. H. Morgan, of Columbia University, was on June 1 formally received into the Royal Society and delivered the Croonian lecture. On the following day he and Dr. Sturtevant addressed the Genetical Society at its annual meeting, held at the John Innes Horticultural Institution. On June 8, Professor Morgan lectured at the University of Edinburgh and its degree of doctor of laws was presented to him."—"Science," June 1922.

Dr. Morgan graduated from the University of Kentucky in '86, with B. S. degree, and received his M. S. in '88. He also received the degree of Ph. D., and LL. D. at Johns Hopkins University in 1915. For a number of years he has occupied the chair of Experimental Zoology at Columbia University, New York City.

o-o-o

John Paul Carmody '08, who has been connected with the Perrin & Marshall, Construction Engineers, No. 2 Rector Street, New York City, is out on construction for that firm, and is located with the Mysore Distillation and Iron Works, Benkipur, Mysore, India.

o-o-o

"Dr. Harold L. Amoss, associate member of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, New York, on June 7 received the degree of doctor of science from George Washington University, Washington, D. C. The scientific staff of the Rockefeller Institute on June 12 gave a dinner in honor of Dr. Amoss, who has accepted the appointment of associate professor of medicine at the Johns Hopkins Medical School, Baltimore."—"Science," June 1922.

Dr. Amoss received his B. S. at the University of Kentucky in 1905 and M. S. in 1907. He graduated from Harvard in 1911 with the M. D. degree and received a Ph. D. there in 1912. He had been doing medical research work for the Rockefeller Institute. During the World War he served as Captain in the Medical Corps.

o-o-o

"I came here the first of the month (July) as Field Superintendent for Compania Azucarera Oriente. This is a beautiful location, 500 feet above sea level in the hills back of Santiago. If you are looking for a summer resort I can recommend this place very highly as the climate here is most delightful."—W. Kenneth Clore '15. Address, care above company, "Central Oriente," Oriente, Cuba.

o-o-o

Professor H. C. Wilson '97, is Superintendent of City Schools at Trenon, Ky. He was formerly principal of the high school at Union City, Tennessee, but says he prefers teaching in his native state.

o-o-o

"Class of 1902—here's a suggestion: I would like to start a chain letter to be sent from member to member till it had visited each one of the class now living, each to add his or her letter, telling anything of interest about himself or herself, since graduation, 20 years ago, the final one of the class to mail it back to me. Then let each member contribute his or her share of the expense necessary to have this chain letter printed in sufficient quantity to mail a copy to each member of the class who might be interested. How about it Class Secretary?"—O. F. Smith, '02, 252 First Avenue, Phoenixville, Penna.

o-o-o

"Find enclosed, check for $2. Get me on the mailing list for the first

We Feature Clothes For College Men

Our interest in College Men and their activities is one of the reasons they like to make our shop a meeting place. Another is the merchandise we show, selected with special care as to their requirements.

New Fall Displays

Our New Fall displays of Stein-Block and Campus Togs Clothes; Johnston and Murphy and C. B. Slater Shoes; Stetson and Trimble Hats, Shirts, Neckwear, Underwear and other furnishings accord an easy opportunity to select wearables of unusual worth most satisfactorily.

Graddy-Ryan Co.

[Incorporated]

140 West Main St.

HUGHES SCHOOL OF DANCING PHOENIX HOTEL

Announce

OPENING DANCE

For Students of University and High School

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 30th

Hours: 8:30 p. m. to 12 p. m.

MUSIC BY SMITH'S SEXTETTE

Becker

"Cleaners That Satisfy"

CLEANING — PRESSING — REPAIRING

We Cater Especially to University Trade.

PHONE 621-Y

Corner LIME and HIGH

BOB PORTER, Student Representative.

copy of the Kernel. I am on the engineering staff of the Alvey-Ferguson Conveyor Company, and the work is very interesting."—Henry J. Beam '22, Oakley P. O., Cincinnati, Ohio.

o-o-o

Addison Gardner Foster II, who is with the United States Ship Lines with headquarters in New York as solicitor for the lines, was called to London, England, to assist in the reorganization of the offices there, and sailed recently on the President Harding. His address is No. 3 Cockspur Street, London.

Mrs. Harrison Gardner Foster (E. Dunster Gibson) will be at 1738 "N" Street, Washington, D. C., during the coming winter.

o-o-o

W. C. Wilson '13 was elected State Commander of the American Legion of Kentucky at the annual meeting in Glasgow, August 28. W. C. has been prominent in affairs of the local post, in the state organization of insurance writers, president of the Lexington Alumni Club and a leader in various other civic organizations in Lexington and Kentucky, much like he was in undergraduate days. A report was received recently that a boom for Governor will be started for him soon.

George Warwick '16, with the Armstrong Cork Co., of Spain, has become a bull fight fan. He is the only American in Algeiras—except Mrs. Warwick who was Miss Julia Rodman—which leaves him with considerable responsibility. George expects to visit the States in 1924.

o-o-o

Rollie M. Guthrie ex— is the enthusiastic secretary-manager of the Glasgow, Ky., Chamber of Commerce. He was general chairman on arrangements for the American Legion Convention held in Glasgow.

o-o-o

Herndon J. Evans '21, leading Stroller, opera star, publicist and all-around High Mogul, has been appointed manager of the Associated Press Bureau at Frankfort. He is in charge also of the State mail service.

o-o-o

Joseph Collis Ringo, ex-18, married Miss Elizabeth Virginia Stears, of Nicholasville, August 19, in that city. They are making their home in Indianapolis.

o-o-o

Miss Isabel Dickey '21 and Jesse W. Tapp '20, were married August 22, at Walton, Ky. Mr. Tapp

(Continued on Page 7)

EVERY PATRON AN HONORED GUEST
The "KENTUCKY" STATE'S FINEST
THEATRE
WILL OPEN SOON!
WATCH FOR ANNOUNCEMENT

ADA MEADE

(BIG PICTURES AT POPULAR PRICES)
SHOWS AT 1, 3, 5, 7, 9 P. M.

Typed Papers
Always Score
with the "Prof"

They save his time and that's important.
They save your time, and that's important too.

Remington Portable

makes all writing swift and easy.

It is the most complete of all portable typewriters—has the STANDARD KEYBOARD and all the familiar features of the big machines. And it is so compact that it fits in a case only four inches high. Price, complete with case, $60.

REMINGTON TYPEWRITER
COMPANY, Inc.

227 W. Short Street.

Lexington, - Kentucky

Paragon Ribbons for Remington Portable Typewriters
50¢ each—$5 a dozen

SOCIETY

College Night at Patterson Hall

The Young Woman's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association of the University of Kentucky observed college night Wednesday at the university in honor of the faculty and entire student body. The committee were Mr. Bart Peak of the Y. M. C. A. and Miss Elizabeth Hume of the Y. W. C. A.

If the weather permitted it was planned to build bonfires in the yard and toast marshmallows. Music was also part of the program. A very large number were present and the affair was a charming welcome to all the guests.

The Christian Endeavor and Sunday School of the Maxwell Presbyterian Church invite the students of State University to be present at an informal party to be given in the parlors of their church Friday, September 29, at 8 p. m.

Alpha Delta Theta Dinner

The members of the Alpha Chapter of Alpha Delta Theta fraternity of Transylvania College entertained with an informal dinner Wednesday evening at the Green Tea house in compliment to the members of Beta chapter at the University of Kentucky and several of the freshmen girls at Transylvania College.

The hosts were: Misses Gladys May, Ida Button, Gladys Gipple, Mary Owsley and Frances Cook, and Mrs. Henry Kimbrough; the guests were Misses Lucy Wilson, Margaret Cole, Alma Hutchins, Dorothea Murphy, Opal Cox, Gladys Martin, Esther Haggan, Virginia Quisenberry, Ruby Cloyd, Daisy McLin, Elizabeth Smith, Edith Hootman, Regina Stanfield, Elizabeth Burris, Loraine Cloyd, Loraine Jones, Helen Hifner, Christine Jones, Anne Luxon, Ruby Van Sant and Mrs. A. F. Hemenway.

Luncheon, Theatre Party and Tea

The Lambda Phi sorority of the University entertained Wednesday in honor of some of the new girls of the University with a luncheon at the Phoenix hotel, followed by a theatre party and then afternoon tea at the Lafayette hotel. The guests of the delightful party were: Misses Isabel Bennett, Anne Shropshire, Edna Wells, Helen Gasser, Alphonsine Stewart, Anna Belle Scott, Mildred Cowgell, Margaret Wooten, Katherine Evans, Rosa Lee Bloomfield, Zelma Hall, Elizabeth Morman, Lucille Arnold, Henrietta Green, Mary Lena Wischart, Frances Kane, Nellie May Newhall, Mary Louise Norman, Esther Haggard, Parthima Davis, Sarah Smock, Anna Louise Singleton.

Alpha Sigma Phi

Piatt Steele, Lexington, John Warren, Louisville, Curtis Sauer, Louisville, Phillip Rusch, Louisville, Frank Seidel, Louisville, Marvin Charles, Paducah, Kobeit Smith, Lebanon.

The chapter house is at 218 South Limestone.

Alpha Xi Delta House Party

The members of the Alpha Xi Delta fraternity entertained with a weekend party at their house in Lindhurst Saturday and Sunday. A number of the new University students were invited in for buffet supper Saturday evening followed by a dance.

Those in whose honor the affair was given were: Misses Elizabeth Helm, Parthenia Davis and Laura Dunn, of Lexington, Dorothy Eversole, of London; Flo Armentrout, of Frankfort; Mary Louise Morris, of Providence, and Marion Foster, of Louisville.

Dinner for Pledges

The active chapter of Delta Chi fraternity entertained with a dinner and smoker Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Lafayette hotel in compliment to the new pledges to the fraternity.

The guests of honor were: Messrs. Edward Goodson, Louisville; Harry Likens, Ashland; R. W. Daniel, Owenton; David McIntyre, Owensboro; William Earl Swope, Eugene B. Cochran, Lancaster; Salathiel Taylor and W. P. Blackburn, Lawrenceburg; Percy Beard, Owensboro; Fred Snyder, Hazard; Cedric Knickerbocker and Pat Farra, Lexington; Anthony W. Thompson, Catlettsburg; John Ellsins, Ashland; Herndon Welfe, Georgetown.

The hosts were: Messrs. William Shelton, Calvin Lisman, William Worthington, Elwood Farra, Joseph Cammack, Raymond Arnold, Allen Cammack, Joseph Johnston, Bowen Nelson, Charles Spillman, B. K. Stewart, J. Y. Elliott, I. J. Miller; alumni—J. J. McBrayer, Goodson Reynolds and James C. Farmer.

Alpha Delta Theta Parties

The members of Beta chapter of Alpha Delta Theta fraternity of the University of Kentucky entertained today with a series of lovely parties in honor of a number of freshmen girls.

The guests had luncheon at the Lafayette hotel followed by a theatre party at the Ben Ali.

The hosts for the afternoon were: Misses Una Varden, Esther Haggan, Opal Cox, Virginia Quisenberry, Margaret Cole, Alma Hutchins, Gladys Martin, Lucy Wilson and Dorothea Murphy.

The guests were: Misses Mary Louise Morris, Eunice Denton, Lena Johnson, Orene Martin, Sara Cole, Virginia Corbin, Margaret Wooten, Eva Weller, Mary Louise Norman, Mary Williams and Laura Belle Smith, and the patron, Mrs. A. F. Hemenway.

The advanced orders for season tickets to the Artist Concert Series have been reserved. Please call today or mail check to Lexington College of Music for your tickets. If any error in reservation has been made it can be more easily rectified now than at a later date. Phone 639-X. adv.

Luncheon at Green Tree

The Sigma Beta Upsilon fraternity of the University entertained last week quite delightfully for some of the new girls of the University.

There was a lovely luncheon at the Green Tree, Miss Sunshine Sweeney's pretty little tea house in the country, followed by a five hundred party at the chapter house, 352 Harrison avenue.

The guests included Misses Edith Minnihan, Mary Williams, Judith Yungblut, Annabell Scott, Rosemary Kaufman, Louise Trainor, Katherine McGurk, Mary Louise Morris, Zelma Hall, Esther Haggard, Lurline Bronaugh, Elizabeth Dale, Catherine Richardson, Christine Gerhart.

Kappa Sigma Pledges

Kappa Sigma, located at 343 Harrison Avenue, announce the following pledges: James Chapman, Louisville; Jack Simcox, Frankfort; Jay Tate, Winchester; T. A. Hendrix, Winchester; Joseph Glover, Hopkinsville.

Phi Kappa Tau Pledges

Phi Kappa Tau, located at 260 S. Limestone street, announce the following pledges: Leonard Barker, Beaver Dam; Clyde Morris, Tom Coons, Mt. Sterling; Logan Fresh, Franklin; John Nichols, Central City; Tom Murphy, Mayfield; Max Winston, Sturgis; Jim Wells, Madisonville; Charlie Young, Sturgis.

Delta Chi Pledges

The chapter house at 284 S. Limestone, will accommodate about 20 men. This fraternity has pledged 15 men, as follows: Edward F. Goodson, Jr., Louisville; R. W. Daniel, Owenton; David McIntyre, Owensboro; William Kendall, Middletown, Ohio; John Elkins, Ashland; Anthony W. Thomson, Catlettsburg; Salathiel Taylor, Lawrenceburg; W. P. Blackburn, Lawrenceburg; Eugene B. Cochran, Lancaster; William Earl Swope, Lancaster; Harry Likens, Ashland; Percy Beard, Owensboro; Pat K. Farra, Jr., Lexington; Laville Wilhoite, Owenton; Robert Embry, Lexington.

Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

It is the purpose of the Y. M. and Y. W. to help you develop the three essential cornerstones of a truly successful career—spirit, mind and body, and in this we need your fullest cooperation.

Regular Sunday Evening Meeting

Dr. Benjamin J. Bush, of the First Presbyterian Church, loyal friend of students, and inspirational speaker, spoke at the initial joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. Sunday evening in the recreation hall of Patterson Hall. He stressed the strengthening effect of hardships showing that struggle and persistence and courage develop character.

Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, located at 242 S. Limestone for the ensuing year, announces the pledging of the following men: Richard Lambert, Covington; Harold E. Stenken, Covington; Aubrey G. Keeney, Covington; Stanley G. Courtney, Georgetown; A. V. Conway, Morganfield; Aaron Ashbrook, Cynthia; Sidney B. Neal Taylorsville; Bertram B. Helck, Newport; John VonGrunigen, Nicholasville; Robert Samuels, New Castle; Robert G. Montgomery, Frankfort.

College Night

The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. gave a social for new students (Continued to Page 6)

STUDENT BODY HEADS GIVE CHAPEL PROGRAM

(Continued from Page 1)

The president of the Su-Ky Circle told of its importance and work. Formerly the spirit of the University was left to the cheer leader, but in the beginning of the year 1920 the Su-Ky Circle was organized by "Daddy" Boles for the purpose of boosting all college activities, especially athletics.

President McVey mentioned as important the Sigma Xi and Pi Beta Kappa fraternities, both of which promote the highest standard in scholarship. After a few announcements the meeting was closed with the singing of America.

HELLO STUDENTS!

Treat your palate and tone your dinner with me for I am---

Dixie
ICE CREAM

"THAT SMOOTH VELVETY KIND"

MIGHTY TASTY AND MIGHTY SATISFYING

The Kentucky Kernel

Published every Friday throughout the College year by the student body of the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky Kernel is the official newspaper of the students and alumni of the University of Kentucky.

Subscription, One Dollar and Fifty Cents a Year. Five Cents the Copy.

Entered at Lexington Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

Editor-in-Chief

IRENE McNAMARA, '23
2117-Y—Phones—24

Managing Editor

RAYMOND L. KIRK
1556-Y Phones 2117-Y

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

KITTY CONROY, '23
RUTH HUGHSON, '23

Sport Editor

EMMITT BRADLEY

Staff Photographer

BILLY WILLIAMS, '23

Business Manager

L. B. HALL, '23

Advertising Manager

WILLIAM W. BLANTON, '23

Circulation Manager

WILLIAM TATE, '23

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

Mary Royter, '23 John Whitaker, '23
Ruth Hughton, '23 Ann Bell, '23

REPORTERS:

Mary Barnard, '24 Helen King, '23
Alma Hutchens, '23 Gardner Bayless, '24
Margaret Lavin, '23 George Lee Murphy, '23
Daugh Smith, '23 J. P. McClure, '23
N. W. Neely, '23 Betty Barbour, '23
Ray Morale, '24

NEWS EDITOR

Elizabeth Ellis, '24

Press of Commercial Printing Company

THE PUBLIC SERVANT

The Kentucky Kernel is published weekly for the interest of the students, to keep them in touch with affairs of the campus and for the purpose of keeping the alumni in touch with each other and with their Alma Mater.

It is the wish of those connected with the publication that the deans and heads of the various departments co-operate with the reporters and if they desire some article of interest published that they call the Kernel office and ask that a reporter be sent to them.

Work on the Kernel is not limited to members of the staff but is open to anyone desiring to contribute.

Last year was considered the best year in the history of the publication of the Kernel from all viewpoints. This record can be maintained and it is the desire that it be improved upon by the assistance of the entire student body. Remember that it is your publication and that it is a reflection upon the University, because it is sent to alumni and colleges all over the United States and it should be a matter of pride to each student to help in making it the best possible.

GO TO CHURCH

Many persons are of the opinion that when a man or woman is taken from the community in which he is reared and is well known, and where he is conscious of the fact that he has a reputation to uphold, that his true worth is manifested. Others prefer to believe that as soon as he is taken away from home ties and into fields unknown, where he thinks that he will never be found out, that another side of his nature may begin to show through.

Whether this be true or not there are certain temptations and pitfalls into which the college student is likely to fall. Undoubtedly the young men and women who come to the University are of the better type and class of people of the state and elsewhere and we would venture that a vast majority, possibly one hundred per cent of them attend church or

Sunday school regularly at home. Perhaps they were officers or teachers in the young peoples' society of the church. But when he is taken from these associations and thrown into entirely new environment and among strangers it is easy to forget to go to church or re-establish any religious connections. This temptation is due in part to the fact that a vast majority of people do not want to start into a strange congregation. Others prefer to remain at home and enjoy personal comfort, or to do something which seems more pleasant. Such a habit is easily gotten into and it is not long before the student drifts entirely away from all religious ties.

Lexington is represented with practically every religious denomination and Sunday school classes established in connection with them. The Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. hold meetings every Sunday evening. The college year has just begun, and you have spent only one or two Sundays here. Do not let your past training be forgotten or undermined by allowing trifling excuses to stand as your reason for not attending church.

Religion is that undefinable inner-being of a man which unconsciously molds his character and shapes his life. It is a sign of weakness for a man to let a habit break down and destroy his power of character building. Affiliate with some church and start the year out right, and in doing so the greatest happiness will be found.

SQUIRREL FOOD

There once was a freshman named Art,
In Math he was keen as a dart,
He told them one day
Just how he got that way,
"Sloan's Linament sure makes me smart."

High Stepper—"What makes that red spot on your nose?"
Grind—"Glasses."
H. S.—"Glasses of what?"

She—"Gee, it's hot, I believe I'll take off my coat."
He—"I'll follow suit."
She—"I think your coat will do."

Prof. Pryor—"What do you know about cells?"
Green Fresh—"Not very much, sir—I've only been in two."

"U" Know the Book Store
Our freshie pitched a cartridge up,
And on a stone it struck,
We hadn't bought his school books yet
Oh, we were not in luck?

You mean he kissed you in spite of your threatening to scream?
What did you do then?
Oh! I kept on threatening to scream.

Prof. Davis (after long winded proof)—"And so we find that 'X' equals '0.'"

New and Green—"Hell, all that work for nothing?"

"The world is so full of a number of brews,
I'm sure we should all be as happy as stew."

A Scenic Paradise
Here's a snapshot of my girl at the beach.
"Snapshot! Brother, I'd call that an exposure."

Heard in the Drug
She—Did you ever see my little niece?
He—Good land woman, not in here.

Taxi, Sir?
Goto Hell!
Sorry sir, can't leave the city limits.

Think of It.
Just think, old top, in Japan you can get a wife for 50c.
"Well," drawled the cynic, "a good wife's worth it."

Client—Is Mr. Jones in?
Stenog—He's gone out to dinner.
Client—Will he be back after dinner?
Stenog—No, that's what he went out for.

Greenbaum—Did you make the trip across in a 1st class cabin?
Strauss (back from Europe)—No, I made the entire voyage by rail.

The New Dean—Melcher Take Note
Dean—Did you get that fellow's name? He looked as though he had been drinking.

Assistant Dean—No, he went too fast.
Dean—Say, that was a nifty looking girl with him.
Assistant Dean—Wasn't she, tho.

In a Frat House
Soph—Hey! Freshman, telephone.
Sleepy Fresh—I ain't expecting no call.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT OF UNIVERSITY HONORED

(Continued from Page One)

is of the British pattern, with roll collar and large pockets. The trousers will have straight legs and the caps will be officers' style.

The Staff

Following is the staff of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps Unit at the University of Kentucky:

Lieutenant-Colonel George Freeman, Jr., Infantry D. O. L., commandant and professor of Military Science and Tactics.

Captain Joseph Torrence, retired, adjutant and assistant professor and M. S. and T.

Captain John T. Bethurum, Infantry, D. O. L., supply officer and assistant professor M. S. and T.

Captain Marvin W. Marsh, Infantry, D. O. L., assistant professor M. S. and T.

Warrant Officer George W. Knight, chief clerk and assistant professor M. S. and T.

Technical Sergeant J. J. Kennedy, D. E. M. L., personal sergeant and instructor.

Sergeant Matthew J. Eberhardt, D. E. M. L. ordnance sergeant and instructor.

Expect 600 in Battalion

It is expected that the battalion will number about 600 men this year. Military Science and Tactics is required of all physically fit male freshmen and sophomores. The students who have successfully completed the basic course and who, in the opinion of the professor of Military Science and Tactics, would make good officers in the U. S. Reserves, are invited to take the advanced course during their junior and senior years. Upon the successful completion of the advanced course the cadets who are recommended by the professor of Military Science and Tactics are commissioned second lieutenants in the U. S. Reserve.

Sergeant McDaniel

First Sergeant William L. McDaniel, who for the past two years has been connected with the Military Department of the University was given a disability discharge at Ft. Thomas, Ky., September 26, 1922.

Sergeant McDaniel was injured last spring by falling off a box, causing him to break his left arm, and on account of blood poisoning he had to have his arm amputated five inches below the shoulder.

Sergeant "Mc" was a friend of all the students and a very popular man on the campus at the University of Kentucky. His record in the Military Department was excellent and the discontinuance of his services will be regretted by all those who know him.

Sergeant McGahan

Sergeant Guy McGahan, who has been in the service since 1899, and who was a captain and commanded company "G" 9th Infantry, Second Division during the World War, has been assigned to the Staff of the Military Department of the University to fill the vacancy caused by the discharge of Sergeant McDaniel.

We, as yet, have not become fully acquainted with Sergeant McGahan, but we are sure that in due time we shall have in the Sergeant a true and close friend. (Squabs watch your step.)

Built By

Florsheim

Fitted By

Baynham's

—and you are sure of style and durability in the Shoes, and a fit that means comfort for your feet.

—Florsheim Shoes and Oxfords present new ideas in Men's footwear—a step in advance of the times for the man who cares.

$9.00 $10.00 $11.00

Baynham Shoe Company

107-109 East Main Street.

Centenary Methodist Church

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 22, 8 O'CLOCK
North Broadway at Church Street,

Has a Vital Message and Warm Welcome For STUDENTS

Sunday Morning Worship at 11 o'clock.

Sunday Evening Worship at 7:30 o'clock.

SPECIAL CLASSES FOR STUDENTS each Sunday.

Morning at 9:45 o'clock.

C O M E

You Can't Tell Till You Try

You could listen to me talk for a week about the QUALITY and extremely Moderately Prices of my Furnishings, Hats and Caps, and then couldn't appreciate their real value till you looked them over.

Take this as an invitation to visit—

MAX ADES

Haberdasher and Hatter At Popular Prices
145 West Main St.

You'll find the College Girl--The College Boy, at the

"THE HOME OF THE BEST IN MOVING PICTURES"
STRAND ALL-AMERICAN THEATRE
"THE ONLY THREE-RING SHOW OUTSIDE A CIRCUS"

HIGH-CLASS "VODVIL" OF 7 BIG ACTS
BEN ALI THEATRE
"THE BIGGEST SHOW ON EARTH FOR THE MONEY."

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

First Game Scheduled With Georgetown Here
October 14.

Some seventy baldheaded huskies responded to Coach Dick Webb's first call for freshmen football, on Tuesday of last week. Interest has been very keen but as yet no definite positions have been made.

This is the first freshmen football schedule that the University has had and the student body can feel assured that they will not be disappointed in Coach Webb's freshmen team. In a short scrimmage against the Varsity, on Wednesday afternoon, the freshmen made a very creditable showing.

The first game is with Georgetown and another opportunity will be given them at a later date. The two games with Center's freshmen will probably prove to be the most hotly contested games of the season. Class of '26, out and back your team.

The following men have reported: Anderson, Alsop, Bablitz, Beard, Buford, Cross, Cisco, Craft, Coons, Colvin, Conway, Chenault, Clark, Collier, Cogswell, Dabney, Derrick, Evans, Griffin, Green, Hobday, Harbold, Hughes, Hall, Hancock, Irwin, Kemper, Kirwan, Long, Lambert, Milward, Montgomery, McFarland, Morand, Petrie, Pepper, Proctor, Pierson, Phillip, Raffe, Russell, Swope, Simpson, Shelton, Sauer, Siddell, Scall, Surginer, Simcox, Tracy, Thomas, Tate, Van Pelt, Wentzel, Woulf, Waker, Williamson, Williams, Welch, McIntyre, Rusch, Warren, Cassidy, Martin, Kemper.

Schedule:

Oct. 14..... Georgetown
at Georgetown
Oct. 20..... Center College
at Danville
Oct. 28..... Open
Nov. 4..... Open
Nov. 11..... Center College
at Lexington
Nov. 18..... Open
Nov. 25..... University of Tenn.
at Lexington

WILDCATS TO MEET MARSHALL HERE

(Continued from Page 1)

last year's squad, will get the call for the tackles. Rice, Colpitts, King or Hollowell will be on the wings. Others who are almost certain to get an opportunity sometime during the contest are, Martin, Neale, Netherton, Moralle and Gatton.

Fuller seems to be the first choice for punting with "Chuck" Rice to help him. The line will probably average around 175, with the backfield making about 165. No lineup or weights of the Marshall eleven could be obtained.

The Marshall lineup will be:
 Crowe center
 Pitsenberger right guard
 Perdue left guard
 Hay left tackle
 Burton right tackle
 McCaffery right end
 Farrington left end
 Crist quarter
 Furbee right half
 Murrill full back
 Dobbs left half

Kentucky lineup:
 Rice right end
 Ramsey right tackle
 Cammack right guard
 Fest center
 Brown left guard
 Russell left tackle
 King left end
 Fuller left half
 Saunders right half
 Pribble full back
 Bayless quarter back

"I am a letter man," said he.
 "What letter?" asked a Freshman.
 "E."

AGRICULTURE COLLEGE DISPLAY AT STATE FAIR

(Continued from Page 1.)

a time each day. Three hundred and they would begin hatching on the first day of the Fair and continue until the last. True to expectations such was the case and hundreds of people received information as to best methods of taking care of poultry.

One of the most interesting of the many displays, was a series of four sixty eggs were set ahead of time so cases showing comparisons of methods of feeding hogs. For each of the four methods there was a one dollar bill for every dollar of profit represented by one method surpassing another.

Two large spaces were employed by the Junior Club workers in which samples of canning done by the girls throughout the State and a clothing display with a budget for a 14-year old girl were displayed. The budget called for a yearly average of $98.88, which included many articles of apparel being made in the home.

Drainage Explained

Very different from the one of last year was the showing made by agricultural engineering department. One farm home using the old type of obtaining water for home use and illustrating improper sewage drainage was shown as against models of a modern farm home with water works in the home and sanitary drainage in use. The ideas were illustrated with miniature dwelling and out-houses.

Another exhibit showed an immense barrel with small holes through the sides through which water trickled in order to show just where the losses in farm profits are most apt to take place.

The Department of Horticulture had a display showing both faculty and sound apples which were results of attention paid the orchard. When the farmer brought in the faculty fruit to the extension worker in charge of the exhibit, he was asked how much was due him for the basket and he replied, "Nothing but your good will. Come out and help me fix up my trees."

CROSS COUNTRY TEAM IN NEED OF NEW MATERIAL

Absence of Letter Men Makes Opening for Many New Candidates

The first call for the University of Kentucky cross-country candidates was issued by Coach George Bucheit Monday morning. Many have already responded and more candidates are expected to report the latter part of this week or the first part of next.

Last year the Blue and White winged youths were undefeated, tying the only meet held, the State Intercollegiate cross-country track meet, but this year will see an entirely new team because of the loss of a majority of last year's stars. Porter, winner of last year's classic, has decided that his studies needs all of his time, and will not be out. Brown, letter man on the track squad, is ineligible, and Petrie, Dean and Maloney have not returned to school. Only one man remains, Hamilton, to serve as a nucleus for this year's team. Thus there will be plenty of opportunities for a large number of men.

There are already three meets scheduled with the possibility of more being added. There will be an interclass meet held some time next month, a dual meet with the University of Cincinnati, at Cincinnati, November 11, and the annual State Meet, November 30, either at Lexington or at Georgetown.

Oh! What is so rare as a day in June?
 I'll answer this famed exclamation—
 It's finding a Democrat holding a job
 In a Republican administration.
 —The Mink.

CAMPUS CHATTER

The following men are candidates from which a team of five will be chosen to represent the University of Kentucky at the International Live-Stock Show to be held at Chicago, December 2, where twenty-five colleges and Universities will be represented:

P. W. Miller, P. R. Watlington, G. W. Gardner, R. H. Woods, C. M. Wade, E. L. Langsford, C. Acree, R. R. Arnold, J. B. Williams, McKinley Elam and J. F. Graham. These men put in four days practicing judging at the State Fair. Last Saturday a trip was made to the farm of McKee Brothers, Versailles, where the team judged Duroc Jersey hogs.

Dr. P. K. Holmes, head of the department of Hygiene and Health, announces that the dispensary will be open every day except Sunday from 8:30 until 5:00 o'clock and he urges all students to get in the habit of coming in often. Treatment is given here free of charge by Dr. Lipscomb, resident physician. All women students will be examined this week by Dr. Josephine Hunt. The examination for men will be given by Drs. Lipscomb, Holmes, McClain and Herring. Women students should make engagements with Miss Blanding and the men with Dr. Lipscomb.

By the table in the hallway,
 By the shining, somber timepiece,
 Stood the Freshman with his pencil,
 With his new-bought nickel pencil,
 And he watched the minutes fleeting,
 Watched the minutes swiftly fleeting,
 While he waited, full of patience.
 Then the minutes lengthened slightly,
 And they skidded on less swiftly,
 While the hairless Freshman waited
 By the table in the hallway.
 By the bright and shining timepiece
 He could catch the minutes clamber
 From the past into the future,
 Slower, slower, ever slower,
 Creeping, crawling, oozing forward,
 While the hairless Freshman waited.
 But the registration ended,
 And the Freshman came out wiser,
 Poorer, yes, and far more patient,
 With his hair six inches longer.
 —J. A. E.

They say whiskey shortens a man's life.
 Yes, but he sees twice as much in the same length of time.—Siren.

Fraternity
Jewelry

Monogram
Stationery

Emblems and Class Pins

Victor Bogaert Co.

LEADING JEWELERS AND IMPORTERS

LEXINGTON
KENTUCKY

AND

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM

Buy Your
Drawing Instruments
From

VEACH

120 North Upper Opposite Court House
DRAWING INK, BOARDS, TRIANGLES, CURVES, T SQUARES, SCALES, PROTRACTORS, RULES,
 TRACING CLOTH AND PAPER, ART GUM,
 PENCILS, NOTE BOOKS, ETC.

"The Lexington Way"

—Of—

ODORLESS DRY CLEANING SOLVES THE PROBLEM OF BEING WELL DRESSED AT A SMALL COST.

Phone 62

Lexington Laundry Company

AGENTS—T. L. SHAW and J. V. COLEMAN.

Pennants Fraternity Paper Kodak Book

Dance Invitations and Programmes

University Book Store

Basement Main Building

"The College Store For College People"

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page 3)

Wednesday, Sept. 20. This was the annual event known as "college night," which is a traditional in the University.

The leaders of the various campus activities briefly outlined the purpose of their organizations. R. L. Hays, well known to all old students, delighted the company with one of his inimitable "mountain sermons." Punch was served and games and dancing enlivened the evening.

Cabinet Meetings.

The Y. M. cabinet decided at its first meeting Tuesday evening of this week to hold the regular association meetings during the week instead of Sunday evening as formerly. Once each month, as formerly, they will unite with the Y. W. in a joint meeting in Patterson Hall.

Evening Watch

Evening watch services are being held each evening at 10 o'clock in the recreation hall of Patterson Hall. These services will be begun in the other dormitories and in the various fraternities very soon.

Town Girls' Committee

Last year a new member was added to the cabinet, chairman of town girls is her official title, held by Ruth Hughson. This committee, under the supervision of Kathryn Elliott, instituted an innovation in the form of a reception for new girls during the two days of registration.

The rest room of White Hall was made attractive with flowers and the Y. W. colors. All about the campus were arrows pointing to White hall, bearing the legend of "Y. W. C. A. refreshments." Many new students followed where they pointed and over the punch bowl formed a favorable acquaintance with the Y. W. C. A.

University Hand Book

The student handbook, frequently known as the freshman's Bible, edited by the Y. M. and Y. W., has been received and distributed.

This little book is a guide for the year, containing the most essential facts about the University. Those who have failed to procure their copies should make an effort to do so.

The editors of the handbook, in gratitude to the firms advertising through it, request all students to consider the merits of their goods and services.

LOST ON CAMPUS

Pair of Shell-rimmed Spectacles, in tan case. Finder please return to Kernel office.

Reception Committee

During the opening days of the University, a reception committee of the Y. W. met all trains and assisted new girls in finding their homes, in registering and in many other ways.

Fraternity Hospitalities

The Pi Alpha Theta fraternity of the University of Kentucky entertained Saturday with a one o'clock luncheon at the Lafayette hotel, and a theatre party at the Ben Ali in honor of a group of university girls. A basket of sunburst roses was used as a center decoration for the table at the luncheon. The favors were little gold and silver baskets filled with jordan almonds. The place cards carried out the fraternity colors, black and gold.

The members of the active chapter are: Misses Elton Rice, Gladys Booth, Ruby Dale, Ann Crabbe, Lucy Gardner, Mavis Sternberg, Bernice Booth, Daisy Allen Taylor and Julia Gardner Ross.

The guests of honor were: Misses Zelma Hall, Louise Potter, Marie Beckner, Belle Scott, Katherine McAlonan, Louise Traynor, Edith Minnehan, Kathryn McGurk, Ella D. Mahoney, Margaret Lester, Lena Johnson, Edna Lewis Wells, Elizabeth Dale, Henrietta Green.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity will entertain with a house dance in honor of its pledges, at their new home on South Limestone street, Saturday, September 30.

The Alpha Xi Delta Affairs

The Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity of the University entertained Monday in a most delightful way some of the new girls of the University.

A luncheon at the Phoenix hotel was followed by a party at the Ben Ali theatre and afternoon tea at 5 o'clock at the chapter house.

The tables for the luncheon were decorated with pink roses and overhead the fraternity emblem, the quill was hung in the form of a large electric illumination. The favors were miniature flower pots with candy flowers.

At the chapter house for the tea the decorations were the same.

The guests of honor were Misses Pearl McCormick, Dorothy Hubbard, Elizabeth Helm, Marie Beckner, Mary Katherine Jasper, Mary Elizabeth Luxon, Margaret Turley, Mary Louise Morris, Sarah Katherine Snook, Flo Armentrout, Rosina Rasch, Clover Coleman, Dorothy Moran, Parthenia Davis, Dorothy Eversole, Lucy Smith, Gene Ward, Louise Atkins, Frances Harris, Frances Stahl, Mary Whitefield, Henrietta Green, Jeannette McVey, Curtis Buchler, Maria McElroy, Lucy Sharpe.

The hostesses were the active chapter of Alpha Xi Delta: Misses Mary Elizabeth Crafton, Sarah Morris, Georgia Lee Murphy, Dorothy Blatz, Elizabeth Williams, Norma Rachel, Katherine Pennington, Kathleen Edwards, Lois Pearl, Elizabeth Ellis, Shelby Northcutt, Irma Bain, Laura Hubbard, Rowena Noe, Elizabeth Morris, Betty Brown, Elizabeth Holmes.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Tea-Dance

A tea-dance from three to six o'clock at the Lafayette hotel was the delightful compliment of Kappa Kappa Gamma to its rushees of the University of Kentucky Tuesday afternoon.

The ballroom was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a six-piece orchestra furnished music. One of the enjoyable features of the afternoon was a vaudeville program presented by a quartette of dancers and musicians from the Ben Ali theatre. An elaborate tea course was served at five o'clock.

The hosts were: Misses Mabel Ruth Coates, Sarah Blanding, Elizabeth Hume, Anne Bell, Josephine Evans, Mary Snell Ruby, Elsie Bohannon, Laura Isabelle Bennett, Patsy McCord, Miriam Seegar, Julia Willis, Mary Matilda Beard, Katherine McMurtrey, Mary Stofer, Dorothy Monroe, Louie Duncan Brown, Frances Smith, Marjorie Riddle, Mary D. Van Deren, Josephine Fithian, Alice Gregory, Frances Field Coleman, Jane Gregory, Elizabeth Cromwell, Mary Peterson, Minnie Benton Peterson, and Marion Austin Vickers.

The guests of honor were: Misses Emily Holloway, Grace Davis, Janet McVey, Helen Van Derveer, Virginia DeLong, Emily Gregory, Frances Cregor, Rowena Coates, Gene Ward, Margaret Turley, Isabel Bennett, Eugenia Herrington, Jane Earl Middleton, Lounse Burks, Mary Vance Harbison, Anne Shropshire, Elizabeth Liffeston, Mary May, Myra McElroy, Mary Helburn, Karah Katherine Snook, Curtis Buchler, Leslie Worthington, Lillian Collins, Eleanor Smith, Lucy Sharpe and Louise Middleton.

NOTICE!

All students of University report to Registrar's office at once and leave names and Lexington addresses.

WE SELL FOR LESS BECAUSE
IT COSTS US LESS TO SELL

These First Cool Days
Find Us Ready With
New Crisp Fall Styles

HIGH QUALITY—SOUND VALUES
G R E A T L Y UNDER-PRICED

SEE
THE
NEW
FALL
"FRAT"
CAPS
$1.98

SPORT MODELS
"HANDCRAFT"
FALL SUITS
$24.85

THE
"PEP"
NEW
FALL
HAT
$2.98

COME IN
GET ACQUAINTED

Loevenhart's
CASH ECONOMY STORE
261 WEST SHORT ST., LEXINGTON, KY.

—THE STORE OF VALUES—

Y. M. C. A. AND Y. W. C. A.
ENTERTAIN STUDENTS

Plans Are Formulated For Forthcoming Year.

The University Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. entertained the students of the University last Wednesday evening with a "Get-together" meeting at Patterson Hall. The entertainment was for the purpose of introducing the new students to the old ones. A large majority of the student body were present, old acquaintances renewed and new ones formed.

Tuesday night the Y. M. C. A. gave a social for the Freshmen boys. President McVey, Dean Boyd and "Daddy" Boles gave short talks to the newcomers.

The Y. M. C. A. has been doing a great work in the University, and, according to their plans for the future, will continue to prove a great benefit to the students. The organization is planning to have between fifty and seventy-five men in close touch with the male students of the University.

TRY OUR COURSE

If you want to improve your memory try lending money to your friends.

Chile: I hear Colgate and Williams had a swimming meet.

Bean: Yes, there was so much foam in the water they had to call it off.—Brown Jug.

Short—"What's the matter with the Dean's eyes?"

Stubble—"They're all right so far as I know."

Short—"Well, when I asked for my leave of absence yesterday, he asked me twice where my hat was, and it was on my head all the time."—The Blair Breeze.

MATTHEW A. MANGIONE & COMPANY

The Progressive

SHOE HOSPITAL

My Work and Prices Always Keep Me Busy
140 South Limestone

SPECIAL ATTENTION TO STUDENTS

University Lunch Room

"HOME OF STUDENTS"

Good Things to Eat at All Hours

MR. and MRS. W. M. POULIS, Props.

We have been a Mother
To Students for
Fifteen Years
Be Kind to Your Mother

Lexington Drug Co.

[Incorporated]

John A. Keller Co. Florists

"SAY IT WITH FLOWERS"

IS REPRESENTED ON
THE CAMPUS BY Albright & Martin

Phone 4085

230 S. Limestone

110 S. Lime
Near Main

MONEY LOANED ON
ALL GOODS of VALUE

Rosenberg Bros.

LICENSED PAWNBROKERS

BARGAINS IN UNREDEEMED
DIAMONDS, WATCHES,
JEWELRY, TRUNKS,
BAGS, ETC.

ALUMNI NOTES

(Continued from Page Two)

was a student in Agricultural Economics at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, last term. They are at home in Washington, D. C.

Miss Mary Gibson '22 and Gus Bruner '21, were married in Lexington, August 22. They are living at Harlan, Kentucky, where Mr. Bruner is practicing law. Mrs. Bruner will teach in the high school there this term.

The marriage of Miss Virginia Crutcher Downing '22 and John Robert Currey ex-'22, was solemnized at Lexington, August 22.

Miss Lucy Emerin Kavanaugh '22 and Thomas Jere Beam, ex-'22, were married at Lawrenceburg, Ky., September 2, 1922. At home, Madisonville, Ky.

Harry Raymond Allen '18, was married September 2, at Lexington, Ky., to Miss Ethel McHatton, of Versailles. They are living at 184 Park Ave., Lexington, Ky.

The marriage of Miss Laurine Wells '21 and Joe Thomas Lovett '22, was solemnized at "Edgewood," the home of the bride's parents at Murray, Kentucky, September 4. They will be at home at Benton, Ky., where Mr. Lovett is editor and owner of the Tribune-Democrat.

Richard L. Duncan '19, was married to Miss Ruby Lorraine Thurman, September 14, at LaGrange, Ky. Mr. Duncan is a prosperous young farmer of La Grange.

The marriage of Miss Emily Doratha Kehl and Charles Landen Tempelin '19 was solemnized at the home of the bride, September 16, in Danville, Penna. Mr. Tempelin is with the American Heating and Ventilating Company, 804 Times Dispatch Building, Richmond, Va.

Sholto M. Spears '22 and Miss Hester C. Gamboe, were married September 16 at Lexington, Ky. They will be at home at 11354 Lothair Avenue, Chicago, Ill. Mr. Spears is connected with the Ogle Construction Company in that city.

The marriage of Miss Isabelle Tompkins, of Lexington, to Wayne Cottingham, ex-'19, of Louisville, was solemnized at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. J. W. Porter, September 21. Mr. Cottingham was on the reportorial staff of the Lexington Leader for four years, leaving there to take a position with the Courier-Journal at Louisville. He is now night editor for the Associated Press at Louisville.

CONTRIBUTED

Our idea of a fellow
Who has a drag with the Girls is one who
Kisses them and then
Pushes them away,
Saying they can't
Have any more.

Belwixt Us

"I have just returned from California and while in Los Angeles had a most delightful visit with my old friend, Mattison Boyd Jones, ("Mary Belle"), now a prominent attorney. Fortune has smiled very sweetly on him and he is now being urged to run for Governor of his state and if he enters the race with the energy and determination shown in college activities, I'm sure he'll be elected."—M. Elliott Houston, ex-'97, president of the Title Guaranty Company, 1546 Glenarm Place, Denver, Col.

Fred Luker '21, is in the engineering department of the General Motors Company at Dayton, O. Address Box 137, Y. M. C. A.

"I trust that we can give Homecoming day, November 4, publicity enough this year that it will be the biggest and best re-union we have ever had. If I can be any assistance along this line, call me."—G. R. Burgess, ex-'05. Mr. Burgess is assistant cashier of the Louisa National Bank, and we have always found him ready to lend a helping hand.

"I was very glad to hear from you again as I have missed the 'Kernel' this summer as well as your cheerful 'voice.' Please work the same trick as last year, that is, apply this two dollars toward the bringing in of some chap who has not yet seen the 'Light.' Let me know the nearest alumni club to Paris. If there is one within 40 or 50 miles I would like to join it."—M. L. McCracken '16 (life member), Agricultural Division, L. & N. R. R., Paris, Tenn.

Miss Katherine Megibben '21, is teaching history in the high school at Jennings, Louisiana, P. O. box 153, and requests that the Kernel be sent to her.

"Enclose two dollars. Am not willing to miss a single copy of the Kernel."—Charles R. Brock (life member), 300 Wight Bldg., Denver, Col.

"Enclose check for two dollars. Would like to have business addresses of all Chicago alumni. My vacation begins soon and I want to call on all former students of the University who are in business in Chicago."—J. H. Marking 321, 1637 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, Ill. Mr. Marking is in the Chicago office of the Carbondale Machine Company.

"Enclosed is my check for two dollars. I always enjoy news of the University and old friends."—S. A. Rapier, ex-'09. Mr. Rapier is general manager of the Rapier Company at 30 Church street, New York City. His company is doing a splendid business in general machinery and electrical supplies and apparatus.

"Enclose check for two dollars and hope the Association will have a most successful year and accomplish its program. Count on me for hearty co-operation."—Ivan P. Tashof '16, 724 Ninth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Trice M. Bell '19, who has been with the General Electric Company ever since graduating, except for last year when he taught in the electrical engineering department of the University of Illinois, is again with the general office of that company at Schenectady, N. Y. His address is 119 Lafayette street.

J. G. Aud '15, writes: "I am yet in the same old place and seem pretty well anchored. Sorry I can not send in the name of another member, but as far as I can learn there is not another man in town from the State of Kentucky and Buffalo is the nearest club. My wish for the University and Association is that this may be the most successful year yet." Mr. Aud is with the Huntley Mfg. Co., at Silver Creek, N. Y. Address 13 Tew street.

"See that my name is put on the list of subscribers for the Kernel at once as I do not want to miss a single issue. Best wishes for 'Kentucky.'"—Everett S. Penick '16, Elkton, Ky.

"Put Your Oar in New" came to my desk this morning and attached hereto is my check for two dollars. There must be ten or fifteen Kentuckians here in Buffalo and I believe I may say we will have a 100 per cent membership this year, and possibly some news items for the Kernel.

"It is a source of great satisfaction to all Kentuckians to see the good work being done by the Alumni Association, especially those of us outside the State. I regret very much that my chosen work will not permit me to live in 'Old Kaintuck' but we can look on the University and Alumni activities in quite a different light from those at home. Best wishes for the success of the Association and Alma Mater."—Herman Worsham '16, "Dolly" has been with the Carrier Engineering Corporation ever since graduating and is now sales manager of their branch office, 1144 Prudential Bld., Buffalo, N. Y.

C. V. Watson '22, is athletic director of the Knoxville Community Service Council, address Room 36, Business Men's Club, Knoxville, Tenn.

"Am sending two dollars as payment for a membership in the University of Kentucky Alumni Association.

"The New York Alumni Club held its first meeting of this fall, September 8, at the Engineers Club, West 4th Street, where luncheon was served to about 35 'Kentucky' men. Dean F. Paul Anderson was the principal speaker of the meeting. Send The Kernel to 285 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y."—Norman D. Witt, '22 (With Chas. Hartman Co.)

Miss Katherine F. Bell, '20 has returned to Paducah, where she is teaching in the Home Economics department of the high school. Miss Bell, and her sister, Mrs. Ruth Bell Branham '18, were students at Columbia University this past summer. Mrs. Branham is teaching in the History department of the high schools, Washington, D. C.—Address 1101 Euclid Street, N. W.

"I have changed my name and address since last you heard from me and will appreciate any news of the University."—Mrs. E. J. Hunt (formerly Vivian DeLaine '21), Box 387, Cape Charles, Va.

W. Glenn Miller '22, is with the Buffalo Forge Company, at Buffalo, N. Y.—Address 334 Humboldt Parkway.

"I fully intended to join the Alumni Association before leaving the University, and to get instructions also for organizing an alumni club at Franklin, where we have some fifteen or twenty former students."—Anna Catherine Hendricks '22, Lone Oak High School, Paducah, Ky.

FORE YOU PLAY WITH 'EM ANY MOORE

Of all the games I love to play,
There's none like good old poker,
I sit up nights that I may say,
"At last I've got the joker."

My sitting up's of no avail,
It never serves to cheer me;
It takes away the bit of kale,
That once in piles lay near me.
—Wisconsin Cardinal.

"Oh, do not shear my sapient dome,"
I heard a captive Freshman's prayer.
His tears were shed profusely and
The same thing happened to his hair.
—E.

Dot—"I can't stand kissing."
Tom—"Shall we find a seat?"

1922-1923 Greeting

We extend a cordial invitation to visit our store, our desire is to make new friends and renew old friendships.

New specials in University Jewelry, Campus Belts, K. Fobs and "Frat" Jewelry.

HEINTZ
JEWELER

123 E. Main St. Oppo. The Phoenix
Lexington, Ky.

Which Type of Research is of Greatest Value?

A stove burns too much coal. A man familiar with the principles of combustion and heat radiation makes experiments which indicate desirable changes in design. That is research.

You want to make a ruby in a factory, a real ruby, indistinguishable by any test from the natural stone. You begin by analyzing rubies chemically and physically. Then you make rubies just as nature did. Your rubies are the result of research—another type of research.

While melting up your chemicals and experimenting with high temperatures, you begin to wonder how hot the earth must have been millions of years ago, and what were the forces at play that made this planet what it is. Your investigation leads you far from rubies and causes you to formulate theories to explain how the earth, how the whole solar system was created. That would be research of a still different type.

Research of all three types is conducted in the laboratories of the General Electric Company. But it is the third type—pioneering into the unknown—that means most in the long run, even though undertaken with no practical benefit in view.

For example, the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are exploring matter with X-rays in order to discover not only how the atoms in different substances are arranged but how the atoms themselves are built up. The more you know about a substance, the more you can do with it. This work may enable scientists to answer more definitely the question: Why is iron magnetic? Then the electrical industry will take a greater step forward than can be made in a century of experimenting with existing electrical apparatus.

You can add wings and stories to an old house. But to build a new house, you must begin with the foundation.

General Electric Company

General Office

Schenectady, N. Y.

94-60511D

FORMAL AWARD OF MEMORIAL POEM PRIZE WILL BE MADE TONIGHT

Professor L. L. Dantzler Will be Chief Speaker at Mayeville

Formal award to Mrs. Eleanor Duncan Wood, of Maysville, of the Kentucky Memorial Poem prize will be made this evening at Maysville. The poem, "In Memoriam," will dedicate the Memorial Building erected on the campus of the University in memory of the 3,056 Kentuckians who gave their lives in the World War and will be inscribed on a bronze tablet to be placed within the building.

Professor L. L. Dantzler will make the speech of presentation on behalf of the Committee on Awards of which he was chairman. Present also will be Professor C. E. Freeman, Transylvania College, and Professor W. B. Jones, Georgetown College, also members of the committee; Herbert Graham, campaign manager, and W. C. Wilson, State Commander of the American Legion, and the members of the Memorial Campaign Committee. The prize is $50 in gold. Mrs. Wood was the winner in 63 contestants including members of the faculty of leading institutions of the state.

The poem follows:

"In Memoriam"

Dear Motherland, Kentucky, here we bring
The names of these, thy sons, who nobly died;
Who for Thy sake and Freedom's put aside
Young love, and lusty life, and call of spring,
And strode down death's dark ways adventuring.

We cannot bring them back! We cannot give
To their young eyes the joy of sunrise, nor
To eager ears that call they harkened for—
The cardinal among the hills of home. They live
But in our hearts—and these are fugitive.

We shall go down to dust even as they.
So to thy heart, Kentucky, bring we now
These deathless names. A coronet for thy brow,
Best-loved, and beautiful. And thou shalt pay
Unending honor till time's latest day.

And it shall be throughout the coming years
Young hearts shall proudly read these hero-names
And feel within their own sacred flames.
"We'll live for what they died for—spite of fears,"
So faith shall spring once more from blood and tears.

Keep safe these names thy sons who would not save
Themselves at price of liberty and thee.
The "Old Kentucky Home" shall hallowed be Throughout the ages by the blood they gave;
Keep thou them safe, thy beautiful and brave!

MADAM FRANCES ALDA TO OPEN ARTIST CONCERTS

Special Rate for Series Made to Students and Faculty.

Madam Frances Alda, prima donna soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will open the fifth annual Artist Concert Series in Woodland Auditorium, Thursday evening, October 5. Madam Alda's career in opera is a record of unqualified successes. Her popularity with the great Metropolitan audiences has been steadily growing. She occupies a secure place in their esteem and affection as an artist of rare personality, who has constantly and consistently risen to greater artistic heights, and stands today at the zenith of her art.

Pitts Sanborn, of the New York Globe, said, "Madam Alda set out to make every note a pearl, and year by year she has added to her string pearl after pearl of unblemished roundness and orient glow."

Madam Alda's concert is only the beginning of the season, as Mary Garden, soprano of Chicago Opera Company, and assisting artists will give the second concert Wednesday evening, November 1. Albert Spalding, sometimes called "The nation's greatest violinist," will give the third concert, November 21. Ricardo Martin, America's leading tenor, and Kentucky's own son, will give the fourth concert, February 13, and the season will close with Sergei Rachmanoff, the great Russian pianist, March 13. Season and single tickets are being sold now at the Lexington College of Music for these concerts. Season ticket prices are $7.70, $8.80 and $11. As there are only a limited number of seats at $7.70 those wishing these seats should make reservation immediately.

The down town ticket sale will begin in the Ben Ali Theatre lobby Saturday at 9 a. m. and continue through October 5, the date of the opening concert.

LEXINGTON COLLEGE OF MUSIC SONG RECITAL

By
HAYDON PARRY THOMAS,
Basso Cantante
Leland Snoddy, at the Piano
Friday Evening, Sept. 29, 9 o'clock,
In the Auditorium of the College

- PROGRAM
1. Aria—Vision Fugitive, from "Heroidade"..... Massenet
 2. a. Beau Soir Debussy
b. L'Heure Equise Poldowski
 3. Night Rachmanioff
 4. a. The Wanderer Schubert
b. Death and the Maiden.....Schubert
c. Saphic Ode Brahms
 5. Aria—Within this Sacred Dwelling, from "The Magic Flute"..... Mozart
 6. a. Prelude Cyril Scott
b. Sacrament MacDermid
c. If You Would Love Me..... MacDermid
 7. Pilgrim Song Tschaiowski
- All students and faculty invited. No charges.

HERE'S A KEEN ONE

Two rustic sports were uncertainly flivvering their way home from the county seat one night in D. B. V. (Days Before Volstead).

"Bill," said Henry, "I wancha to be very carefully. Firs' thing y' know you'll have us in a ditch."

"Me?" said Bill, in astonishment, "Why, I thought you was drivin'."

—Exchange.

THE MEANEST MAN

Here is a man who has his whiskers shaved off because baby likes to pull them.

THE PROCRUSTEAN BED

A Department of Prejudices
By Troy Perkins.

The Freshmen

To several hundred freshmen who will appear bald-headed and big-headed on the Kentucky campus, college life carries with it a certain glamour. The idea is a romantic and a brave one, capable only of youth, gleaned from the giddy pages of "Old Siwash," "Stover at Yale," the Fitzgerald stories, and a score of others. College has become a profession, and these freshmen have come here to be college men. The professional college man is not so patent at Kentucky as he is at the usual state university, due somewhat to our position as an enlarged mechanical school, but the number of rah-rah boys increase each year.

The college idea is best expressed in football; it is the epitome of school life. The football player is the ideal hero. It is during the autumn months that life at school is most typical. The days of delightful carelessness, the leisurely strolling with some one, the honeyed nothings essayed with bravado and received with salt—and then, the big game.

It is all very foolish, but so is the best part of life.

Panorama

Blank-faced freshmen smoking brand-new pipes, ill at ease, trying to appear careless * * * Unknown sophomores receiving the only enjoyment afforded by the school year, cutting the hair of freshmen. * * Juniors and seniors strutting critically about, looking congenially blasé, striving to impress the freshmen girls. * * * Freshmen girls using newly acquired lines, striving to impress the upper classmen. * * Deans and professors secretly gloating over their renewed opportunities to hound their hard-working pupils. * * Joe, the watchman, wearing a blue shirt.

A tedious summer has been much relieved by the periodical appearance of lists naming the greatest twelve men in America. The handicappers have been principally captains of industry and college dons. The opinions of both are negligible. The lists of the professors smell of the encyclopedia in the pedantic fashion that is their wont. The compilation of our dozen supermen by the man of big business was, in nearly every instance, a listing of the mountebanks who achieve mob popularity through the newspapers and the magazines.

A certain strained deference was shown the arts, of which the particular judges were plainly ignorant. The most flagrant example was the inclusion in one list of Eugene O'Brien, possibly the compiler's recollection of Eugene O'Neill, the playwright. The absurdity of the thing lies in the fact that the men were not chosen for their ability so much as for their prominence, an attribute as flimsy as it is variable. It is assuredly no feat to detect such a phenomenon.

Undoubtedly a vastly more interesting revelation would be the selections made by an equal number of collegiate liberals. Taking inspiration from the above mentioned method of choosing our greatest men, I propose the following list as representing more accurately our first-rate men than those sponsored by the New York Times. It is prejudiced, you say, but the best criticism, after all, is only the most informed prejudice.

The first twelve:

Charles Chaplin, Eugene O'Neill, Will Rogers, James Branch Cabell, Ring Lardner, Ludwig Lewisohn, George Jean Nathan, H. L. Mencken, George M. Cohan, Ted Lewis, Irving Berlin, Florenz Ziegfeld.

Much paper has been wasted on a similar rating of the women. I have spent much time on a list of our foremost women, but try as I may I can name only one.

WE'LL SAY THEY WILT

"Which weeds are the easiest to kill?" asked Young Flickers of Farmer Sorghum, as he watched that good man at work.

"Widows' weeds," replied the farmer, who was a man of experience. "You have only to say 'Wilt thou?' and they wilt."

Justright Clothes Are Snappy and Full of Pep

Just The Kind That Appeal
TO COLLEGE MEN

We've an especially large assortment of distinctive patterns in ALL WOOL VIRGIN WOOLENS which are sure to find favor among College Men—as we had them in mind when we made our selection.

As a special inducement to order early we are making these patterns up at—

$35.00

We are willing to stake our reputation on these values being the best that you can find anywhere. The tailoring is of the highest—the styles the latest, including the latest Sport and English models—as well as conservative and extreme effects to suit your particular taste.

Other Suitings at $30 to $45.

Remember, every garment is cut and fitted on the premises and that we guarantee satisfaction.

All garments made by us pressed for one year free of charge.

JUSTRIGHT
TAILORING CO.
"WE FIT YOU"

149 West Main St.

Lexington, Ky.

R. S. THORPE & SONS

Welcomes the students of the University
back to Lexington and to

Style Headquarters for College Men

Society Brand Clothes

Kirschbaum Clothes

See Us For Season's Newest Styles

R. S. THORPE & SONS

(Incorporated)

Main Street at Mill.

The Men's and Women's Student Bible Classes of

Calvary Baptist Church

INVITE YOU TO ATTEND EVERY SUNDAY
MORNING—9:45 O'CLOCK

PARRISH & BROMLEY
DRY CLEANING AND PRESSING

152 S. Limestone St.

Phone 1550-Y

QUALITY AND SERVICE

PATRONIZE THE ADVERTISERS IN THE KERNEL.

VENUS
PENCILS

The largest selling quality pencil in the world

FOR the student or prof., the superb VENUS out-rivals all for perfect pencil work. 17 black degrees—3 copying.

American Lead Pencil Co.
220 Fifth Ave.
New York

Write for booklet on VENUS Pencils and VENUS ERASERS and Mechanical Pencils